

ASKING QUESTIONS IN ENGLISH – QUESTION FORMS

Grammar » A2 Grammar lessons and exercises » Asking questions in English – Question forms » Page 3

Exercises

Explanation

Downloads

Exercises: 1 2 3 4

Asking questions in English – Question forms

Exercise 3

Fill in the gaps with question words.

You have completed this test.

Correct answers: 10/10.

Your score is 100%.

Check your answers:

1 A: Where ✓ do you live? B: In a small town near here.

⇒ We use where to ask about place.

friends.

⇒ We use who to ask about person.

3 A: What ✓ did you say to Laura? B: Nothing.

⇒ We use what to ask about object, idea, or action.

4 Which ✓ box do you prefer, the small one or the big one?

⇒ Which is similar to what. But we use which when there are a small number of possible answers (the small one or the big one).

5 A: How often ✓ do you go out? B: Every Saturday.

⇒ We use how often to ask about frequency.

6 A: When ✓ are you going to visit me? B: Next Sunday.

⇒ We use when to ask about time.

7 A: Why ✓ didn't you tell me anything? B: Because I was afraid.

8 A: How much ✓ sugar do you want in your coffee? B: Two spoonfuls, please.

⇒ We use how much with uncountable nouns (sugar) to ask about quantity.

9 A: What time ✓ shall we meet? B: At 7?

⇒ We use what time to ask about time.

10 A: How long ✓ is she going to stay? B: Just a couple of days.

⇒ We use how long to ask about duration or length.

Exercises: 1 2 3 4

Related tests: